PREFACE	VII
CONTENTS	IX
CHAPTER 1 INTRODUCTION	1
1-1 Background	2
1-2 Research objective and questions	11
1-3 Research approach	15
1-4 Thesis structure	17
1-5 Thesis overview	27
CHAPTER 2 THE LIBERALIZATION PROCESS AND THE DEVELOPMENT OF POWER EXCHANGES	29
2-1 The European legal framework	30
2-2 The role of electricity trading	39
2-3 The emergence of power exchanges	41
2-4 The “European” model: a hybrid model	48
2-5 Conclusion	57
CHAPTER 3 THEORY OF MARKET DESIGN FOR ELECTRICITY	59
3-1 The issue of market design	60
3-2 Industry structure	64
3-3 Wholesale market	68
3-4 Marketplace design	81
3-5 Conclusion	87
CHAPTER 4 ECONOMIC THEORY OF MARKET FUNCTIONING	89
4-1 References models: perfect competition/monopoly	90
4-2 Oligopoly competition	92
4-3 Characteristics of electricity markets	97
4-4 Economic theory applied to wholesale electricity: recent developments	103
4-5 Conclusion	118

CHAPTER 5 THE FUNCTIONING OF POWER EXCHANGES	119
5-1 Trading on a power exchange	120
5-2 Price formation mechanisms	122
5-3 An auction theory approach of power exchanges' functioning	127
5-4 Physical aspects	130
5-5 Power exchange and others markets	132
5-6 Conclusion	139
 CHAPTER 6 PARTICIPANTS' BEHAVIORS ON POWER EXCHANGES	 141
6-1 Introduction to firm's behaviors	142
6-2 Trading strategies involving a power exchange	146
6-3 Bidding behaviors	151
6-4 Example of specific bidding on power exchange related to market/marketplace design	158
6-5 Conclusion	171
 CHAPTER 7 COMPETITION AND POWER EXCHANGES	 173
7-1 Defining competition	174
7-2 Competitors in generation and interconnections	178
7-3 Competitors on power exchanges	188
7-4 Prices and volumes analysis	194
7-5 Conclusion	208
 CHAPTER 8 POWER EXCHANGES AND MARKET INTEGRATION	 209
8-1 The creation of a common market	210
8-2 Test for market integration	218
8-3 Results of linear correlation analysis	228
8-4 Results of regression analysis	232
8-5 Conclusion	237
 CHAPTER 9 POWER EXCHANGES AND TRANSMISSION PRICING	 239
9-1 Transmission pricing	240
9-2 Case studies: the Nordic countries and PJM	250
9-3 Transmission pricing in the EU	261
9-4 Empirical evidences of inefficient transmission pricing	275
9-5 Conclusion	286

CHAPTER 10 POWER EXCHANGES: CORNERSTONE FOR “MARKET”
REGULATION	289
10-1 Redefining regulation	290
10-2 Difficulties for designing and monitoring markets in Europe	295
10-3 Toward European “market” regulation: the role of power exchanges	315
10-4 Conclusion	337
 CHAPTER 11 CONCLUSION	 339
11-1 Research results	340
11-2 Follow up research	343
11-3 Final remarks	345
 APPENDIX 1 THE IMPORTANCE OF “MARKET” REGULATION: LESSONS
FROM CALIFORNIA	349
A1-1 Introduction	350
A1-2 Overview of the Californian market design	353
A1-3 Poor market design?	356
A1-4 Lessons for European markets	359
 APPENDIX 2 DETAILS OF ADF UNIT ROOT TESTS, ESTIMATES OF
REGRESSION MODELS AND ECONOMETRIC DEFINITIONS	363
A2-1 Details of ADF unit root tests	364
A2-2 Estimates of regression models	368
A2-3 Econometric definitions	371
